The Anti-Home Rule Meeting
Brought Lively Encounters
Today in Irish City

UNIONIST CLUBS BROKE
BOTH HEADS AND WINDOWS

Police Were Also Badly Beaten
Up in Fistic Bouts of Early Riots

BELFAST, Ireland, Sept. 19.—The second of the great anti-home rule demonstrations was held today at Lisburn, County Down, where a vast concourse of Orangemen registered their determination to resist the grant of home rule by armed force if necessary. The policy of the Nationalists is to show England and Scotland that all the religious tolerance is on the side of the Ulstermen.

Early Riots—Heads Broken
Scores of broken heads and minor injuries resulted from desperate anti-home rule rioting in the meeting here early today. The trouble came when members of the Unionists' clubs invaded the Catholic portion of the city and smashed windows. Repeated police charges on the mob failed to quell the rioting until daylight came. Many of the police were badly beaten up.

Covenant Agreed to
The text of a covenant signed at Ulster today was made public today. It says: "We pledge ourselves to stand by one another in defending our cherished possessions and defend the present conspiracy to establish Home Rule, and in refusing to acknowledge the authority of the Dublin Parliament."

100 Hurt in Budapest Riots

LOS ANGELES AND SPOKANE NEARER BY 450 MILES

Los Angeles officials of the Southern Pacific in charge of the building of the line from the southern terminal, say the survey of the line has been completed and that the distance will be 1175 miles, 100 miles further than the shortest route now between Spokane and San Francisco and 450 miles shorter than the shortest existing line between Spokane and Los Angeles. The inland Harriman north and south line will run from Spokane to Lewiston, along the Snake river to the Oregon Short Line from Nampa to Winnemucca, to Hazen, to Gweno, to Mojave, thence to Los Angeles.

Living Cost To Be Lowered By Panama Canal

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—That at least 5 per cent of the present cost of living will be saved to California by the opening of the Panama Canal was the prediction made here by William R. Wheeler, manager of the Chamber of Commerce Traffic Bureau. He maintains that his prediction is based on expert knowledge of what will follow water competition. Railroad rates between the two coasts, he says, will be reduced from 50 to 40 per cent, and this will result in the following decreases:

Plumbing bills will be cut down 10 per cent; cook stoves will cost from $1 to $2 less; the price of coal will be lowered; irrigation pipe will be several dollars cheaper—in fact there will be sweeping reduction in all commodities.

MINE STRIKE IS TALK DOVE AND SERIOUS AT BINGHAM

Strikers Seize Ton and Half of Dynamite—Destruction of Camp Feared

MINERS BUILD BREAST
WORKS READY FOR FIGHT

Gov. Spry and Militia Officers
Take Peace Envoys to Scene of Trouble

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 19.—Serious trouble is expected hourly between the strikers and deputies at the Bingham mine of the Utah Copper Company, fifteen miles from here. All night and this morning the foreign strikers have been throwing up breast-works and otherwise preparing for trouble. There has been considerable desultory firing throughout the day, though no one was hurt. Fearing an outbreak, Sheriff Sharp is increasing the number of deputies and at noon had 250 men under arms. The sheriff threatens to attack the strikers and drive them down the mountain. It is reported that Governor Spry will confer with President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners this afternoon.

The miners this morning captured the powder-house of the Utah Construction Company, taking a ton and a half of dynamite which is 60 per cent glycerine. The destruction of the whole camp is feared. Governor Spry and officials of the national guard, today went to the scene to personally inspect the strike situation, taking a Greek priest and a Greek banker as peace envoys.

Afternoon Conference
President Moyer and other local labor leaders are conferring with Governor Spry this afternoon. It is reported that two deputies compelled Moyer to attend the conference. Militiamen throughout the state are warned to be in readiness to move on Bingham in case the expected trouble breaks out.

Cause of Strike
The organizations involved are the Western Federation of Miners, Association of Steam Shovelmen, Brotherhood of Boiler-makers and Ship Builders, Brotherhood of Blacksmiths and Helpers and International Association of Machinists.

An increase of 25 cents a day is the bone of contention. The Utah Copper Company and many smaller concerns have refused to treat with union officials representing the miners.

Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, advised against an immediate strike at the meeting Tuesday night, but was overruled by unanimous vote.

By 10 o'clock yesterday all the mines were idle. Strike pickets, many of whom were said to be armed, turned back the shifts which started for work.

"STRAP HANGERS" ORDINANCE HELD BY UNWISE JUDGE

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 19.—Federal District Judge Bean has issued a temporary restraining order preventing the enforcement of the "strap-hangers" ordinance, which was effective tomorrow. The ordinance provides for 3-cent fares where no seats are provided. Should the passengers later obtain seats, no additional charge can be made. The defense attorneys claimed that the ordinance is confiscatory and unconstitutional. The order is returnable on September 26, when arguments will be heard.

QUAIL SEASON THE SAME

Fish and Game Association Tonight to Consider Protective Measures

MAY OFFER REWARD
FOR THE "SOONERS"

Constitution and By-Laws Are to be Adopted at Tonight's Meeting

Proposed measures for the protection of fish and game in this county are to be discussed tonight at a meeting of the Orange County Fish and Game Protective Association.

The meeting will be held at the city hall. One object is to adopt a constitution and by-laws, which will be submitted by a committee appointed at the meeting of the association two weeks ago. Permanent officers are to be chosen.

Members of the association have been talking the situation over. They are convinced that there has been a great deal of hunting out of season. Men who go out after rabbits take chances in killing doves and quail. There are a good many hunters local who say they know of instances where quail have been killed by dove hunters. The remedy that has been proposed is to have the rabbit, quail and dove open seasons come at the same time. Offer a reward of $25 or $50 for the conviction of any person violating the game law. Then when any rancher hears a lot of shooting going on out of season he will go after the fellow who is doing the shooting.

At present, when it is closed season for quail, a rancher hears shooting going on, he may think the hunters are getting quail, but he does not know but what the shooting is all doves and rabbits. There is no reward, and he does not take the trouble to aid in bringing "sooners" to justice.

Some such talk as this has been going on among the hunters, and it may be that some proposal for a law that will make the dove and quail seasons come at the same time may be backed by the association.

Others doubt if it is worth while to try to cut the rabbit open season. It has been but a short time since there was no closed season on rabbits, and in some sections of the state the closed season has not proved popular.

In making proposals, the association keeps in mind that Orange County is part of a district in which the closed and open seasons are the same. The next legislature may change that district. At present the district is composed of Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino and San Luis Obispo counties.

A number of matters may be discussed tonight. The proposition of establishing a big game preserve in the southeast part of the county in the forest reserve for the protection of deer and the propagation of wild turkeys and tree squirrels may come up. It is likely that the situation in regard to the depletion of the abalone beds by Japanese fishermen will be discussed. Local sportsmen are "hot under the collar" because of the fact that there seems to be nothing can be done to stop the wholesale taking of abalones now going on along the coast between Santa and Corona Del Mar. If nothing more, it is altogether probable that the association will endorse some measure to be asked for at the next legislature that will allow a county to protect its own shell-fish to the fullest extent.

30,000 PEOPLE TO WITNESS SERIES

World Championship Baseball Games Being Prepared For
at Fenway Park, Boston

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—About 100 men are at work at Fenway Park, arranging accommodations for 30,000 persons who are expected to attend the world's championship baseball series between the New York Giants and the Boston Red Sox. All available space is to be used for temporary stands and at least 10,000 seats, in addition to the normal capacity of 22,000 will be added. To protect the fans from speculators, the Boston management has decided not to distribute reserved seats by mail, thereby making it necessary to call for them. This system, it is expected to minimize the operations of the speculative element.

BOTH ROOSEVELT AND RUNNING MATE SCORE

Roosevelt Points Out Absurd Mistake
of Gov. Wilson As to Competition—
Johnson Denounces Bossism

TRINIDAD, Colo., Sept. 19.—Colonel Roosevelt today voiced a hot reply to the charges of Woodrow Wilson that the Progressive platform plank regarding trusts was suggested by Geo. W. Perkins and Gary. He said:

"Five minutes' inquiry would have convinced Wilson that he has no foundation for such statements. When President, I advocated the same method the Progressives now advocate in handling the trusts, which is practically the application of the principles of the Interstate Commerce act."

"While in Minnesota I learned that the men controlling the steel and harvester trusts there are supporting either Taft or Wilson. Wilson further said that, under the Progressive plan a corporation would control the labor market, declaring that labor's only chance is competition. Wilson's reasoning is evidently obtained from reading books. If he had a personal working knowledge of labor conditions he would know as every wise reader does, that reckless competition spells ruin to the majority of wage earners. Wilson has made an absurd mistake."

ZUNI INDIANS POSED WITH T. R. FOR MOVING PICTURES

LAGUNA, N. M., Sept. 19.—Theodore Roosevelt, the Progressive candidate for President, and several hundred Zuni Indians furnished the subject for what Cecil Lyon, of Texas, termed "some crackbrack campaign moving pictures." The Colonel, however, was too busy trying to converse with the Indians to do much posing, but the camera caught him in a number of characteristic attitudes.

Cecil Lyon said the time of his life keeping the Indians lined up on the foreground. They did not trust the photographers and wanted to get away from in front of the cameras. "Hee much like the cannon nose," they grunted. "Damn thing might let go."

The scene where the picture was snapped was exceedingly picturesque, the settlement, composed of adobe shacks being several hundred years old.

GOV. JOHNSON MEETS ROYAL GREETING IN INDIANA

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 19.—Governor Johnson of California, Progressive candidate for the vice-presidency, delivered fourteen speeches in southwestern Indiana today. He will arrive in Indianapolis tonight.

CAPTURED BIG AUDIENCE AT TERRE HAUTE, INDIANA

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 19.—After a gruelling tour through Southern Illinois, Governor Johnson, late last night crossed the state boundary line and entered upon his two days of campaigning in Indiana. Governor Johnson signalled his first address here by paying a high compliment to former United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge as the greatest asset that Indiana has furnished to a nation in a generation and urged his election as a vindication of the Progressive ideas for which Beveridge has stood.

Old residents here declare that the meeting which Governor Johnson addressed last night never has been surpassed either in enthusiasm or in numbers. Owing to the belated arrival of the special train it was nearly 10 o'clock before California's executive reached the Auditorium where the meeting was held. The great crowd had remained, however, and hundreds were on the outside unable to gain admission.

Governor Johnson told of the fight against bossism in California and described graphically the events of the state's bi-partisan government and then scored bossism in Indiana.

TWO MAIL CARRIERS GET STIFF FINES

Had to Pay $200 Each for Stopping to Eat an Ice Cream Soda on Rounds
CLEVELAND, Sept. 19.—Two Cleveland letter carriers were fined $200 each for stopping on their rounds to eat an ice-cream soda. Eight other carriers have been given equally severe fines for trivial infractions of the postal rules.

Letter carriers here assert they are being persecuted. Supported by the National Letter Carriers' Association, they will employ attorneys and fight the department at Washington.

Political revenge by the Taft administration is back of the department's activities, they charge. Several of those who have been fined for practically no reason at all are members of the Progressive party.

FIRST SHIP TO SAIL CANAL IN DEC. 1914

Canal Commission so Concluded
Today—The Ship Will be
Naval Vessel

FORMAL OPENING WILL NOT BE TILL DEC., 1914

Construction Cost Will be 25
Millions Less Than Cost
First Estimated

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—One year from next December the work of the United States in Panama will practically be completed and vessels of the world will be allowed unrestricted use of the great waterway. This was the keynote of a revised Governmental statement today and every official connected with the undertaking is pluming himself on the fact that the big ditch will be completed fully thirteen months before the formal opening on January 1, 1915.

NAVAL VESSEL TO LEAD WAY THROUGH CANAL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The first vessel will sail through the Panama Canal in December, 1914, according to revised estimates of the canal commission today. The first ship will be a vessel of the navy. The formal opening of the canal will be on January 1, 1915.

Col. Goethals, supervising the construction of the big ditch, reports that the construction of the canal will cost $375,000,000, $25,000,000 under the original estimate.

Unrestricted use of the canal for the great commercial vessels, the Government announces, will begin in December, 1914. The delay in the general use of the canal is due to numerous tests necessary to be made before large commercial vessels should be permitted to pass through the locks.

LEGAL STATUS OF PETITIONS ARE TO BE GIVEN OUT SOON

LOS ANGELES WILL BEGIN MUNICIPAL RAILROAD TODAY

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—Actual construction of the municipal railroad planned to connect the harbor with Los Angeles is to commence either today or tomorrow. The initiation of the work will be made by Mayor Alexander, who will turn the first clod of earth.

Homor Hamilton, city engineer, late yesterday afternoon received orders to assign a gang of men to do grading work at the Slauson avenue end of the city's right of way and to enter upon the actual work of grading before tomorrow night, today, if possible.

This decision to take immediate action with regard to the construction of the municipal road was arrived at yesterday at a meeting of the board of public works, and comes as a direct result of a call upon the board for speedy action made by the municipal railroad commission. The options on the streets to be traversed have about expired, one lapsing tomorrow night.

BONDS FOUND TO BE ILLEGAL

Huntington Beach Pier Issue
Not Good; So Say Attorneys For Purchasers

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 19.—Great indignation exists here because the attorneys of the buyers have advised their clients that the pier bonds voted last spring are invalidated by a technical error in the ordinance calling the election. The bonds were sold nearly three months ago. Delay caused the city trustees to direct the city attorney to take up the matter and force a definite refusal or acceptance of the bonds. The city employed Los Angeles attorneys to prepare all the necessary legal steps and relied upon their making the bond issue valid, conforming to all legal requirements. The campaign for the bonds was extremely bitter here, and opponents of the issue and those favoring it almost coming to open violence. The bonds carried by a vote of nearly 6 to 1.

GRAFT EVIDENCE COMES TO LIGHT

N. Y. Police Promotions Bought and Sold in Commissioner
Bingham's Term

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—That police promotions in New York City during former Police Commissioner Bingham's term of office were not made on merit, but were bought and paid for like any other commodity, was the gist of evidence presented to the democratic committee which is investigating charges of graft against police officials.

Commissioner Waldo presented the committee with an affidavit signed by Police Captain Reith which charged that he was turned down for a captaincy during Bingham's administration because he refused to pay A. L. Johnson and James Heff, agents of the administration, $15,000 for the job. He admitted, however, that he had paid $600 to a made roundsman, former Commissioner Bingham, the next witness, after waiving immunity, testified that he heard talk while he was commissioner that promotions in the department were paid for, but that he did not believe it. He said he did not promote Reith because he did not consider him fit for promotion.

AMUSEMENTS

There will be a real treat in store for lovers of adventure and natural history when the marvelous Carnegie Alaska-Siberia Moving Pictures will be seen for the first time at the Grand Opera House, beginning Saturday night, Sept. 21.

These wonderful pictures were taken by Capt. Kleinschmidt, the fearless Arctic Big Game hunter, who has spent the greater part of his life among the Eskimos in the land of the Midnight Sun. The camera shows this most daring tribe of Eskimos at work and at play, harpooning walrus, stalking the ponderous polar bear or pursuing the human-like seal, this unique figure of the north is always interesting. The scenes portray the Eskimo children and, in fact, the entire colony, indulging in their favorite games. A moose hunt in Alaska is among the very interesting and thrilling scenes shown by the camera. The great monarch of the twilight land's jungles is seen almost within arm's reach of the camera, wounded and at bay in a dense fastness. Herds of mountain goats scurrying across the black crags of an arctic range, primitive railroading in Alaska, totem poles of a hundred or more weird and fantastic designs, manly harnesses to a plow and other remarkable pictures are shown on the screen. One of the most interesting scenes shows a barren island in the center of Behring Sea. Precipitous walls of rock 500 feet high shut the granite waste from the sea. There are only two landing points on the entire shore line. At one of these the hills rise at somewhat easier angles and there on the slopes are perched a score or more Eskimo houses. Little round, cheese box affairs, propped up on drift wood stumps and enclosed with walrus skins. The pictures have created a genuine sensation wherever shown and are declared to be the crowning achievement of motion picture photography.

Plague of Snails

A plague of snails is reported from the Island of Ceylon, part of which is overrun by the animals. All vegetation is devoured as soon as it appears, and the natives have found it necessary to co-operate against them. Trenches are dug to stay their progress, and they are kept from the trees by making a circle on the ground around the trunks of cork or fiber, impregnated with tar or pitch.

PERSONAL CHAT AS TO CANDIDATES

Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson in Youth, Family Standing and College Tastes

An anonymous writer in the World's Work for September takes advantage of the lull between the campaigns to draw some very amusing comparative pictures of the three presidential candidates. The similarities and discrepancies of their early youth he puts in a nutshell:

"The three are sons of families of about equal prominence and standing in their several communities; the Roosevelts and Bullocks and the Tafts and Torreyas were people of substance and the Wilsons and Woodrows were people of intellect. The three eminent sons of the three families were born within two years of one another. Wilson is nine months older than Taft and Taft is a year and a month older than Roosevelt. All three went to good schools; there are no better colleges than Princeton, Yale and Harvard. Differences in their characters appeared already in the varying manner in which they comported themselves at college: Wilson read books of his own choosing, toiled to perfect himself in writing and debate, became a favorite and a leader, and was graduated forty-first in a class of 122. The year before, Taft had been graduated from Yale second in a class of 121. The year following Roosevelt took his degree at Harvard with honors in natural history and claimed to have held for a short period the lightweight sparring championship.

STRICT QUARANTINE AGAINST HAWAII

U. S. Prohibits Coming in of Fruit or Nursery Stock Infected
by Mediterranean Fly

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Today the Department of Agriculture promulgated strict quarantine regulations against importation of fruits and nursery stock from Hawaii which may be infected with Mediterranean fly. The Federal Horticultural Board held a hearing today on the Mediterranean fly, and two government experts, A. L. Quarant and A. W. Stubbs, testified concerning the danger to American fruit growers, and particularly to the Pacific coast, if the pest is not barred from the country. The quarantine is effective immediately.

Dr. W. A. Orton, acting chairman of the board, said the regulation guarding against admission of the fly will be even more stringent than those to prevent white pine blister getting a foothold in this country. Though the Simmons fruit quarantine bill passed by the last session of Congress is not effective until October 1, the Department of Agriculture about a month ago declared a temporary quarantine against the fly.

C. A. Marlatt, chairman of the Horticultural Board, is now in Hawaii arranging for the fight against the fly and perfecting arrangements for the quarantine. Congress at the last session appropriated $35,000 to exterminate the fly in Hawaii and keep it out of the United States.

Hawaiian fruit growers do not oppose the quarantine, which has been demanded principally by California growers, who claim to have been extensively damaged.

IF CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS—"CASCARETS."

Headache, Sour Stomach, Biliousness and Bad Taste
Gone by Morning

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which swells and ferments like garbage in a sour barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Finger Arithmetic
The earliest way of counting was by means of the fingers, and in the picture writing of the ancients the drawing of an open hand invariably signified the numeral V. Some nations, indeed, even went so far as to make their week consist of five days. A few tribes were not content to count solely by the fingers alone and added their toes as well. The Aztecs, for example, counted in multiples of twenty and had twenty days in their months. The Roman notation consisted of a ten fingered system, and the X used to signify ten is, after all, only two V's placed point to point or apex to apex, the V typifying five.

He was fined $25 and costs. ### Well, Rather

He was very large, and evidently had imbibed too freely. He conversed with every one in the car with splendid impartiality.

At Market street, as most of the passengers arose to get out, he stood back with wondrous courtesy and said in clarion tones, with a flourish of one unsteady hand:

"Stand aside and let all the old maids of first, gentlemen!"

One sour-faced dame, who evidently came under the head of those who were to descend first, turned her sharp nose about in his face and retorted shrilly:

"Sir, if all the men were like you, a good many of us would be proud to be old maids!"—Philadelphia Times.

Six Reasons Why You Should Do Business With This Bank

1. Depositing your money in bank makes it absolutely safe from loss by robbers, fire or accident.
2. With a bank account you can pay your bills by check. The canceled check is a legal receipt for payment. You cannot be made to pay the bill twice.
3. A check book makes all your money available at any moment, and you are never bothered about making change.
4. The bank keeps your books. Every deposit and the amount of the checks you draw are carefully entered in your pass book by expert bookkeepers, so that you know where you stand at the end of the month.
5. Nearly every man needs to borrow money at some time. If you are well known at the bank, through your bank account, it is easy to get accommodation.
6. Every check you write is an advertisement of your good business habits and solid worth, which has the effect of raising you in the general esteem of your neighbors.

Any one of the above reasons is of itself sufficient to influence you to open a bank account. It will only take a short acquaintance with this bank, and the facilities it offers, to convince you that six reasons are only a few of many more why you should make it your financial home. Now is the time to begin the practice of these most approved business methods, and to make this bank what we want it to be—

THREE THINGS MOST NEEDED

State Horticultural Commissioner Delivered Address to Fruit Growers at Orange

Orange News: State Horticultural Commissioner A. J. Cook addressed a meeting of fruit growers at the city hall yesterday afternoon. In part Mr. Cook said:

"I have been asked repeatedly what are the three things most important to the citrus growers of Southern California:

"After a tour of the state and a careful comparison of the work being done by fruit experts, I believe that these three things are: 1. The elimination of all weeds from every orchard; 2. The constant fighting of scale and fungus detrimental to trees; 3. Co-operation with the county horticultural commissioners in their efforts to maintain a high standard and to prevent infected trees from being imported into their territories.

"In the districts about San Jose ranchers are taking especial precautions against weeds of an injurious nature, and the result has been larger crops. Southern California growers should follow their example.

"Freedom from scale and fungus is hard to accomplish, but I find that the districts about Tulare and San Joaquin are singularly free from these pests, and unless the Southern California citrus men are especially wary that section will take the lead.

"Co-operation with the county horticultural commissioners is general and commendable. With the exception of a few northern counties, where political scheming has worked dissension among some of the officeholders, much to the detriment of the work, everything is harmonious, and great results are being accomplished.

"The question of quarantine is an important one. At the present time we have the best quarantine laws in the world. Dr. C. W. Mallot, the second man in the entomological division of the government Agricultural Bureau, says that California's laws in this respect are very nearly perfect.

"Two bills, especially, have been of much value. One of these prohibits imports of diseased Hawaiian citrus trees, protecting us from the dreaded mediterranean fly, while the other is the law allowing mail inspection. This latter law, however, will allow of inspection only before the consignment is mailed; but we soon hope to have it amended so that mail containing plants may be examined when received. Postmaster General Hitchcock is in favor of this amendment and it will probably be put through before long.

"Among the many things accomplished by the commission which are receiving praise is the publication of the state crop reports and of the monthly bulletins. These are of great assistance to the citrus growers, giving them an opportunity of comparing methods used in various districts and warning them against any new pests.

"Altogether, after my tour of the state, I am well pleased with the work. To the growers of Southern California I wish to add that the formation of organizations such as the Claremont Pomological Club is of incalculable value, and that every section should have its club where citrus growers can gather and discuss their work."

BARNUM AND BAILEY'S CIRCUS WILL SHOW HERE TOMORROW

There is only one elephant in the world that has ever learned to toss a baseball. She is Koko, born in captivity ten years ago. Harry L. Mooney, boss of the pachydermal department of the Barnum & Bailey circus, taught her to perform the feat.

The elephant ball game is one of the season's feature acts of the Greatest Show on Earth and Koko is the individual star of the game.

"I don't believe the ordinary man understands what a remarkable achievement has been accomplished in persuading an elephant to throw a ball," Mooney tells. "And, after all, the credit is not so much for the trainer as for the elephant. I feel I did not teach Koko. She just naturally learned it herself. It took two winters to do it, working four or five hours a day.

"In learning to pitch, the difficult thing Koko had to accomplish was a quick, jerky motion. When we throw a ball it is done chiefly by a quick, snappy motion of the wrist. You can hardly imagine an elephant snapping its trunk, but that is just what Koko does when she throws the ball.

"I began with her winter before last, but did not get very far. Last winter I took up the job determined to make a success of the ball game if possible. Koko and I spent four or five hours a day together. We would work a half hour, rest a few minutes, and then go at it again.

"It was impossible for me to take hold of her trunk and show her how to toss the ball. It couldn't have been done that way. What I did was talk to her. I urged her and explained what I wanted just as I would to a child. When she would make some little progress I would praise her and encourage her, and she would try harder next time.

"Could she understand what I said? Why, of course. Elephants actually come to understand what we say to them. The other evening in the ring Koko was playful and tried to have fun with me. She wouldn't throw the ball, just dropped it down in front of her. I knew she was fooling, but of course the public did not. Finally I said to her in a low tone: 'You big beast, don't you try to kid me or I'll beat you when I get you downstairs.' She got busy at once and went through her act in great shape.

"After I had trained Koko to pitch, the rest of the baseball act was only a matter of a few weeks. Bessie, the catcher, Pilot, the batter, and Koko enjoy playing baseball better than anything else they do. The applause they get and the fact that the whole attention of the audience is centered on them has a great deal to do with it. Elephants love applause as much as a chorus girl does."

Forty elephants compose the herd of the Barnum & Bailey circus and they'll all be here on next Friday, in parade and in performance.

WAS SOUND ASLEEP UNDER THE HOUSE

Frantic Search Conducted Yesterday For 4-Year-Old Boy, Francis Hill

One small 4-year-old boy had the neighborhood of the Detention Home in a vigorous search yesterday. The small boy is Francis, son of L. H. Hill, superintendent of the Detention Home.

Along in the middle of the afternoon Francis disappeared. A hurried search of the Detention Home failed to discover him.

Superintendent Hill and Matron Hill led the search for their boy. The children of the Detention Home joined in.

All the rooms were gone through. Superintendent Hill went into the cellar, searched it and called loudly for Francis, but got no answer. Convinced the boy was not there, Hill went out and locked the door so that there need be no further time wasted searching the cellar.

Search of the premises and neighborhood was carried on in a hurried manner. Finally, Hill called on the police, and they, too, joined in the hunt for the missing boy. All the cellars and barns in the neighborhood were subjected to suspicion and rigorous investigation.

Still no Francis. It became to be feared that Francis had been stolen. The conviction grew.

The children of the Detention Home gathered in the playroom. They had searched and searched and had ended all efforts. They were tired out. The child's father and mother were still away conducting the search.

Suddenly the children, sitting in the playroom heard a wall. It came from beneath the house.

It was Francis. From the cellar he had crawled to an obscure corner underneath the house and had gone to sleep.

On awakening he began to cry, for it was dark where he had chosen for his nap. That was not all, for the door of the cellar was locked. Francis wept at the top of his voice, but the children could not reach him.

Francis waited and the children tried to make him understand the situation by calling to him.

Then Hill drove up. He had come to see if there was any news of his missing boy. The cellar door was quickly unlocked and the boy was soon in his mother's arms.

INTEREST IN GARAGE CHANGES HANDS

Orange News: Ownership in a prominent automobile firm of the county changed today with the announcement of the purchase of the interest of H. F. and H. R. Gardner in the Orange County Garage Company, Inc., by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kenyon.

The company operates garages in both Santa Ana and Orange, and holds the bulk agency for the county. As the Orange City Garage, with H. F. and H. R. Gardner, and Otto Kolberg owners, the company built up a thriving business and expanded by establishing a garage in Santa Ana. Mr. Gardner and son both reside here.

Harry Kenyon is the son of William Kenyon, and, though a young man, is rising rapidly in the business world.

SCHOOL GROWTH IN LOS ANGELES

Phenomenal Advance of City is Shown; 70,000 Mark Will be Exceeded

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—The phenomenal growth of Los Angeles is shown in the large increase in the enrollment of the Los Angeles schools. So great is the number that although members of the board of education worked late yesterday on the reports no definite total was reached, and it is predicted that the 70,000 mark will be exceeded.

"The enrollment in the Los Angeles schools is simply marvelous," said J. H. Rancie, superintendent of schools, yesterday. "There will be a heavy increase in the number of pupils attending school this year over the number of last. Although the school board has extended the course, enlarged and built buildings, and added 100 new teachers to the teaching force, the provisions made at each school will be stretched to the limit.

"Especially in the high schools is the enrollment heavier than ever before. Over 1900 pupils are enrolled in both the Los Angeles and Polytechnic high schools and at the Manual Arts 1600 pupils are attending classes. This is an increase of 400 pupils over last year."

HANDICAPPED

This is the Case With Many Santa Ana People

Too many Santa Ana citizens are handicapped with bad backs. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause if the kidneys are weak. To eliminate the pains and aches of kidney backache you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys—thousands testify to their merit. Can you doubt Santa Ana evidence?

Mrs. M. W. Davis, 758 Cypress ave., Santa Ana, Cal., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family off and on for several years. The person who has used Doan's Kidney Pills was severely afflicted with kidney trouble, the chief symptom being pains in the back. On a number of occasions he was obliged to quit work owing to the severity of the attacks. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Dean's Drug Store (now Wheeler & Mateer's Drug Store) brought prompt relief and they have been an unfailing means of relief in this case since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn, Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Men Who Succeeded as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utterly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys. I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

OCCIDENTAL OPEN GOOD ENROLLMENT

President Baer Enthuses Students; Says Co-Education Fight Dropped Forever

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—With an enrollment of eighty freshmen to date, totaling 170 students, Occidental College yesterday entered into a new year's work with renewed spirit and enthusiasm.

In his address in the chapel at 10 o'clock, President John Willis Baer emphasized the necessity of close application to work, and impressed on the young men and women that the speed craze was responsible for failures in other branches than the airplane or steamship ones, many young people, he said, being possessed with nothing but the anxiety to "get through" college with as little work and trouble as possible.

At the close of his speech the president touched on the recent fight for co-education made by the women of Occidental and declared that the episode should be dropped forever. He said he felt himself more than ever bound to the college and its united interests.

WHERE PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANS STAND

The position of the Progressive Republicans in this county can be defined in a word.

They are Republicans supporting Roosevelt and Johnson in this campaign.

They hold that the so-called Republican National convention was so tainted with fraud and marred by injustice that its action imposes no party obligation on the Republicans of California.

They hold that Roosevelt was the choice of the great majority of the Republicans of the country for nominee of the Republican convention and that it is therefore perfectly consistent for Republicans as individuals or as organized bodies to support him.

They are mindful of the fact that the reactionary element of the party has been five times repudiated by the Republican voters of California at elections held since the primary which nominated Hiram W. Johnson in August, 1910, and that in the most clearly defined and most significant and most mandatory of these elections the majority against the Reactionaries was over 77,000.

They take cognizance of the fact—and point to it with confidence in its integrity and conclusiveness—that the Progressives of California were willing to leave and did leave to the Republican voters of California the decision as to who is the RIGHTFUL nominee of the REPUBLICAN PARTY IN CALIFORNIA. By 19 to 1 the Republican voters of California decided for Roosevelt and repudiated the stolen nomination presented to President Taft by a convention which was owned and operated by Penrose, Crane, Barnes and other corrupt political bosses of the same type.

Moreover, the Progressive Republicans of California recognize that the victories for progress and reform which have been won in this state have been achieved through the machinery of the emancipated Republican party; and they are not in any hurry, therefore, about turning over the organization of the party to the same forces that for more than a generation have blocked the efforts to bring about better conditions in the political life of the state.

This we understand to be the attitude of the Progressive Republicans all over this state—and, for that matter, all over the country. The Riverside Press says:

"We are making political history fast these days, and it may be that within the next two years or four years, we shall see such a realignment as will cause the great majority of the Republicans in California to ally themselves with a third party, locally and nationally; at present, however, they are not ready to take that step. They are simply supporting Roosevelt as the true representative of the Progressive wing of the Republican party. They have no quarrel with the small minority of Republicans who prefer to flock by themselves and support Taft. They view their attitude with sorrow and regard them as misguided and erring brethren; but they have no intention of allowing this minority to dictate the policy and determine the attitude of Republicans in California."

The following resolutions adopted by the Fresno Republican county convention give a very clear and forcible statement of the position of the Progressive Republicans in this state:

"We repudiate the pretended Republican national convention which met in Chicago in June and undertook to foist a fraudulent nomination on the Republican voters and the Republican party bodies organized under the law in the various states. We declare that William Howard Taft is not the nominee of the Republican party of California, nor of any body which has the right to speak for the Republican party of the United States. Theodore Roosevelt was the expressed choice of the Republican voters and of the majority of the delegates honestly elected to form a Republican national convention. The formal nomination of Roosevelt was prevented by force and the pretended nomination of Taft was accomplished by fraud. This leaves the Republican party without any national nominee, and delegates to the legally organized Republican parties in the various states their right of independent action. This right we declare belongs either to the voters individually or to the organized party collectively, as each state may prefer. In California the determination is left by law to the voters themselves at legally regulated party primaries, and these voters have now twice declared that Theodore Roosevelt is the nominee of the Republican party of California. We endorse that action of the Republican voters, and approve the announced intention of the Republican nominees to the legislature from Fresno county to carry it into effect by voting to place on the ballot as Republican nominees, candidates for presidential electors who will, when elected, cast the vote of California in accordance with the instructions of its people, for Theodore Roosevelt for president, and for Hiram W. Johnson for vice president."

THE DECAY OF THE OLD PARTIES

For the past 40 years some men have been Republicans because their fathers were Republicans. Others were Democrats for similar reasons. As long as people inherited their politics, the old parties drew no consistent line of division. People became used to a certain place of residence. It was as hard to break over the bars when independence was needed, as it is for a man to change a place of residence to which he has become attached.

The grossest of abuses have sheltered themselves under this habit of partisanship. The professional politicians have understood that they could commit almost any crime, and party spirit would pull them through. Honest and progressive people have constituted the majority in both parties. But party lines divided them and weakened their power. Meanwhile the politicians were practically a unit, notwithstanding their nominal division into parties.

The Progressive movement is simply the effort to bring the progressive element in both parties into one organization against the class of professional politicians who defeat and thwart the will of the people. United in one organization, the people who want social justice will be in the majority, and will be able to dictate terms to the professional political class.

The Progressive party has placed in nomination for president the man who first laid down the principle that great corporations must obey the law, Theodore Roosevelt. When Mr. Roosevelt became president in 1901, it was a matter of common remark that no man dared to interfere with Standard Oil and other great monopolistic corporations. Mr. Roosevelt said that no interest, no matter how powerful financially, is exempt either from the moral law or from the statutes of the United States. After long years of fighting, laws were passed regulating railroad rates and forbidding rebating, which brought the great railroads to terms.

Today the problem before the people is to control the great industrial corporations as the great railroad corporations have been controlled. Naturally the Progressive party has picked the man who handled the railroads so successfully to deal with the industrials.

It looks as if the Hon. Bill Loeb were about to change cars for Armageddon.

The Man Above The Dollar

From a Speech at Shrine Auditorium, Los Angeles.

BY THEODORE ROOSEVELT

You older men remember when the favorite argument by the "copper-head" was that Abraham Lincoln was destroying the Constitution. You remember that; and the "copper-heads" today are always saying that we are destroying the Constitution or damaging the courts. We would damage the courts only in the sense that Abraham Lincoln damaged Chief Justice Taney's court Dred Scott decision.

Sometimes our opponents get a little mixed up in attacking, as they think, us, and really attack the men who are dead. There was an amusing instance of that last spring in the primaries. I was quoting a letter of Abraham Lincoln, which he wrote in 1859 to a committee of men in Boston who were dealing with the objections that he was fighting property, that he was dealing a blow at property rights. You (addressing a Civil War veteran in the audience) remember when they used to advance that in the Civil War.

When Taft Took Notice

Lincoln wrote to the Boston Committee: "We are both for the man and the dollar, but if we must choose, we put the man above the dollar."

I quoted that sentence, thinking that everyone would know who it came from, and so did not mention Lincoln's name. It attracted the attention of President Taft. He thought it originated with me, and so he wrote—it was previous to his retirement from politics—to a committee of financiers, or employers—I forget whom—saying the next time a demagogue on the platform—that was meant to be me—tells you that he puts the man above the dollar, ask him what he means by it.

Now, the particular demagogue on the platform was Abraham Lincoln, but, as I at once informed Mr. Taft, I could enlighten him both as to what Abraham Lincoln meant and as to what I meant when I quoted him. Abraham Lincoln meant that when you put the dollar of the man who owned the slave and weighed it in the balance against the man himself who was the slave, that he put the man above the dollar.

Welfare Above Dollar

I mean this, concretely and directly, that when they put the dollar of the factory owner who wishes to work boys and girls eight and ten years old—I put the welfare of the boy and the girl above the dollar of the factory owner.

I mean that when the Court of Appeals of the state of New York says to the brakeman who has lost both legs in an accident through no fault of his own, on the railway, when he seeks to recover, that he shall not, because the property of the railroad is above the human right of the brakeman who was employed by it; I answer that we should put the human right of the brakeman above the property right of the railway.

I stand for property rights; I would protect them whenever improperly assaulted; I would protect the rich man who acts decently against any assault, and I would protect him even if he acts crookedly against lawless violence, against any kind of assault in controversy of law, but in return I ask that he do justice himself. I not only ask, but I advocate taking measures which will make him do justice.

Fine Horse Breeding Not Dependent Upon Race Track Gambling

BY FRANKLIN HICHOORN.

The argument used in favor of the betting law to be voted upon in November for the restoration of race-track gambling in California is that the breeding of fine horses depends upon race-track gambling. These arguments, says Railroad Commissioner Eschman, in caustic discussion of their argument, "that horses will not be developed without racing and that racing cannot be carried on without gambling. There is no logic in this position. If it were a fact that horses would not develop without racing and that they could not race without being fed on our children, the logic of the supporters of horseflesh against men would require the sacrifice of our children."

Figures Against Them
But the figures show that the gamblers' argument is without foundation. In 180 days betting at Emeryville in 1908—
The amount bet on the races totaled $36,000,000.
At the lowest estimate the gamblers paid the New California Jockey Club $756,000 for the privilege of betting with the public.
The largest attendance at the track for a single day was 15,000; the average paid attendance is estimated well above 4000. This meant at least $4000 a day gate receipts for the New California Jockey Club, or $720,000 for the season. From betting fees and gate receipts alone, then, the club received at least $1,476,000 for the 180 days.

But the purses distributed among the owners of the winning horses totaled only $609,190, or $866,810 less than the amount of the gate receipts and the income from betting privileges.
Then again the New California Jockey Club collects "fees" from the horsemen, as well as from the gamblers, which are always collected in advance. The horse owners get into debt to the feed men, but not to the New California Jockey Club. The club management is too clever for that.So it will be seen that when the gamblers prate about the advantage of the gambling-supported track to horse breeders, they are saying a word for the horse breeders and a whole string of words for themselves.
The Figures of It
For the $609,190 given in purses at the Emeryville track in 1908, 1167 horses started. But 477 of these horses won nothing; 690 drew prizes. The $609,190 was shared by 275 horse owners. Of the 275, 66 won less than $300; 95 won less than $500;

146 won less than $1000; 195 won less than $2000; 218 won less than $3000; 230 won less than $4000; 242 won less than $5000; 267 won less than $10,000, and eight only won more than $10,000.

When the enormous cost of the upkeep of a racing stable is considered, the fees paid by the horsemen to the New California Jockey Club, and the horsemen's other track expenses, it is not probable that any horseman who received less than $5000 in purses broke even.

And yet of 275 horsemen who won money, only 33 got more than $5000, while 242 got less than $5000. This is not including the horsemen who got nothing at all during that 180 days season.

And to secure these doubtful results for the horsemen, $36,000,000 was wagered at the Emeryville track; the bookmakers paid the New California Jockey Club $756,000 or more; the betting public paid the New California Jockey Club nearly three-quarters of a million in gate receipts; the horse owners paid the club thousands of dollars in fees and rentals.

And in return for this enormous outlay nearly 250 horse owners who won, lost money, while 33 horse owners may have made expenses and a little better.

The gambler as an assistant to the breeder of fine horses isn't much of a success.

But the figures indicate the enormous profits that will accrue to gambler and racing association, should the people by their votes restore race-track gambling in California.

Street-Car Manners

In an article on "Etiquette" in the October Woman's Home Companion appears the following about street and street-car manners:

A woman should get on a car ahead of a man, but when they leave it, the man should descend first, and be ready to give the woman his hand to help her to the ground. If the car is crowded and another man rises to give a seat to the woman escorted by a man, the latter should lift his hat in recognition of the courtesy. If a woman is alone she should acknowledge the offer of a seat by a bow and a word of thanks. The man who is escorting a woman pays her fare; but should they meet by chance, it is not etiquette for him to do this.

"It is taken for granted, of course, that a man should lift his hat when meeting a woman, or when walking with anyone who bows to someone, whether he knows the person bowed to or not. Also, he should take it off in answering a question put to him by a woman; when he steps aside to make way for her, or shows her any other courtesy; when he gets into an elevator with her, or enters a shop with her, and he should stand uncovered during a chance conversation with a woman on the street. If a man meets a woman he knows, it is her part to bow first. Even if she is not on good terms with him, she should incline her head, no matter with how cold and distant a manner. Only a very violent misdemeanor justifies a woman in giving a man or indeed, another woman, the cut direct."

"The same quietness of demeanor which marks well-bred people in public conveyances or meeting-places should be practiced on the street. Caresses in public, or calling to acquaintances the width of the street away, are distinctly in bad form; and a lack of consideration for others is shown in the carelessness which does not keep to the right side of the sidewalk in promenading, which rushes through swinging doors without a backward glance to see whom the door may catch in the rebound, which presses in ahead at box-office and ticket-office with no respect for the rigors of those earlier on the ground. Another violation of courtesy is to be laid to the charge of the with a woman."

Early to Bed

Some children wonder why it is that they must always be sent to bed so much earlier than grown folks and many of them make all kinds of excuses to stay up a little later.

Sleep is nature's provision to enable the body and brain to rest and grow, and most of the growing is done by children while they sleep, so that if they do not go to bed early and get plenty of sleep they must lose some of their growth, both bodily and mentally.

In the old days some parents were very careless about their children's sleep, but people understand such things better now, and parents know that if they want their boys and girls to be tall and straight and bright they must give them plenty of sleep.

Doings In Social and Club Circles

Thimble Party
Miss Zoe Vanderlip of Orange avenue entertained with a thimble party yesterday afternoon. After a few hours spent in this most enjoyable pastime, the hostess served delicious refreshments to her guests, who were as follows:

Misses Helen Austin, Leta Wells, Marguerite Wallace, Alice Wasser, Maud Skiles, Zelma Sturgeon, Eileen Tubbs, Hazel Stockslager, Marguerite West, Louise Tubbs and Miss Moore of Orange.

Not a Dull Moment

An afternoon of genuine pleasure was spent by a large crowd of ladies of the Christian church yesterday afternoon at the Experience social. Cartoons showing the ways the dollars were earned were shown and caused much merriment. Those who had not cartoons gave motion pictures and some of them were so realistic that it was easily guessed how their dollars were procured.

A nice musical program was rendered. Ireta Coulson and Bertha Miller each contributed two numbers which were greatly appreciated. Refreshments of grape nectar and cake were served.

The ladies will have a nice little sum of money to add to their building fund.

The ways and means of earning that dollar is suggested by the following list: Milking cow, making bread, making doughnuts, picking fruit, making tanning, selling eggs, feeding chickens, selling pills, pressing trousers.

Past Matrons Met

The members of the Past Matrons' Association were pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Ruddock, 639 North Birch street.

During the more formal session when the ladies transacted the business affairs of the meeting, it was decided to hold a picnic at Talbala next week. This will undoubtedly be a jolly affair.

A social time devoted principally to conversation and newwork, followed the business hour. Later delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Ruddock in the dining room, a color scheme of red and green being used. Covers were laid for sixteen.

P.T. Program Arranged

Yesterday afternoon the executive committee of the Parent-Teachers Association of the Roosevelt school met to plan an outline of work for next year. The first meeting scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 8, will be in the nature of a "getting acquainted" reception, when the teachers and parents will become known to each other. Dates of other meetings of the year were scheduled and programs arranged.

Yesterday a meeting was held at the home of Miss Myrtle Wilson, president of the Association, and the other members of the committee were the remaining officers and chairmen of committees. After the conclusion of the business of the afternoon, Miss Wilson served ice cream and cake to the small company.

Woman's Convention

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the San Diego district of the Methodist Church yesterday afternoon closed a convention lasting through Tuesday night and Wednesday. The convention was held in the First Methodist Episcopal church here and the published program was carried out almost exactly, one small change being the only variation. The program proved highly interesting and was heard by people from every section of the district. Fifty delegates and a large number of interested visitors swelled the attendance to a generous number.

Particularly enjoyed was the address on "Immigration" given Tuesday evening by Rev. F. M. Larkin, district superintendent of the Los Angeles district. Several conference officers, including the district superintendent, Rev. Alfred Inwood, were present at various times during the convention and their helpful talks added greatly to the success and pleasure of the meetings. Luncheons were served at noon of each day of the convention, the Philatheas having the matter in charge. They not only gave good meals but made considerable money.

Election of officers was held on Wednesday with the following result: President, Mrs. F. A. Ziegler of Anaheim; first vice president, Mrs. E. Hoskyn, Riverside; second vice president, Mrs. S. M. Davis, Santa Ana; third vice president, Mrs. Barnes of San Diego; fourth vice president, Mrs. Walter Jones, San Diego; corresponding secretary, Miss Geneva Schnitzer of Garden Grove; recording secretary, Mrs. A. E. Haskyn of San Bernardino; treasurer, Mrs. Jesse Jayne, Santa Ana.

Mrs. C. W. Burns, who has for many years been corresponding secretary, was presented with a beautiful Woman's Home Mission pin of gold and a handsome berry spoon in appreciation of her faithful service.

Grieving For Namesake

The recent sudden death of little Ella Bristol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bristol of Madera, was a great shock and sorrow to Mr. and Mrs. R. Bristol, the grandparents of the little one. They had but just returned from Madera and were in the midst of preparations to remove to their new home in Los Angeles, when they received the sad news of the fatal accident to the child.

Mr. and Mrs. Bristol immediately departed for Madera. The accident occurred on Monday last, the little girl who was but 20 months old, falling from the house steps and fracturing her skull, dying later as a result. The little girl was the namesake of Mrs. H. R. Bristol who was devoted to her grandchild. The friends of the family grieve with them in their sorrow.

Surprised Mrs. Carter

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Lacy, Miss Laura Lacy, Miss Ellen Campbell, Miss Sadie Fleming were instrumental in giving Mrs. Laura T. Carter of the Lacy House a very happy surprise Tuesday evening when she was the guest of honor at a theater party with an after-theater supper at the Dragon following. Later Mrs. Carter was presented with some pretty remembrances which she will prize as souvenirs of a pleasant evening.

Will Live in Hemet

T. P. Page is in Santa Ana from Hemet, where Mr. and Mrs. Page are now living. The change of location has greatly benefited both Mr. and Mrs. Page, so much so that they have decided to dispose of their ranch here and permanently locate in the higher and dryer climate. Old time friends of these good people rejoice in their regained health, but regret their departure from Santa Ana.

Car Will Run

The street car will run tonight from Orange to accommodate those who desire to attend the Christian Science lecture at the Grand Opera House.

Her Seventy-Eighth Birthday

Mrs. L. O. Myers was hostess yesterday at an all-day affair given in honor of the seventy-eighth birthday of her mother, Mrs. Emma Manley. The celebration was at the Arcade rooming house, of which Mrs. Myers is the proprietress. In the double window in the parlor was a large picture of Mrs. Manley draped with an American flag.

A sumptuous chicken dinner with all the accessories was served at noon and an oyster supper was spread before the guests in the evening. The evening following was spent in the guessing of riddles and conundrums, and listening to phonograph music. Thirty guests were present from Los Angeles, Santa Ana, Garden Grove and Talbert.

Mrs. Manley bears her seventy-eight years comfortably, and greatly enjoyed the birthday celebration. Many pretty gifts were received by her, as well as congratulations on being in good health at her advanced age.

Moving Beach Cottage

You Never Saw Such Red Tag Bargains As These

These Red Tag Sales Pay Me Better Interest Than My Bank

"And if I'm a little short and don't have the ready cash to buy at your Red Tag Sales for next season's needs, I think it a mighty good investment to draw money from the bank. It's worth while, in fact, to borrow it, for while the bank might pay me 75c to $1.00 for the use of my $25 for a year, I figure when I've used the $25 at your Red Tag Sale I've made from $5 to $10."

The above talk came from a keen young man in this city and he continued, "It sounds almost like a get rich quick syndicate. 20 to 40 per cent interest, but is absolutely safe, for I understand if anyone is dissatisfied with his purchase he may return it and you'll refund the money." "That's a fact," replied the clerk, "the policy of the house is the SQUARE DEAL for everybody." "This is great," remarked the gentleman and as he went out of the store, laughingly added, "Say, I'm going to be a philanthropist for the next few days and advise everyone to buy here, 20 to 40 per cent interest, that's pretty good."

P. T. Barnum could not have evolved the greatest show on earth without Henry E. Allot's pink lemonade.

CONVENTION MET AT GARDEN GROVE

Epworth League and Sunday School of M. E. Church South Had All Day Institute

Yesterday was a red letter day for Sunday school and Epworth League workers of the M. E. church, South, of Bolsa, Taubert, Old Newport and Santa Ana, when an all day institute was held here, beginning at 9:30 a.m. with devotionals led by Rev. R. R. Raymond.

The time was evenly divided between the Sunday school and the League, and it would be hard to say when there was the most enthusiasm. The "knotty" problems of Sunday school and league work were handled ably by the different speakers; how to encourage attendance and then how to make things interesting for those attending.

The new departments recently introduced into this work were explained fully, from the Cradle Roll to the adult classes.

At noon the ladies of the church served a good, old-fashioned chicken dinner in the basement, the kind that all Methodists enjoy. There was certainly some enthusiasm at this part of the service, too. One could easily tell who were the preachers in the crowd.

In the evening at 7:30 the choir gave a short musical program, and the Rev. J. J. Kenney, presiding elder of the Los Angeles district, preached a powerful sermon on the necessity of bringing the young people up in the Sunday school. About 150 people attended the institute.

The program in full follows: Devotionals—Rev. R. R. Raymond. Discussion, "The Cradle Roll and Its Purpose"—Mrs. C. W. McNaught. Explanation—Mrs. A. A. Jones.

Discussion, "How to Get Parents Interested"—Rev. J. J. Kenney. Discussion, "Teacher Training"—G. B. Hodge.

Discussion, "How to Get and Hold the Young Man"—L. A. West. Discussion, "How to Get the League to Study the Lessons"—Miss Mollie Kozina, W. A. Youngman.

Discussion, "How to Make the League an Efficient Training School for Future Church Workers"—Ed. Warner, R. R. Raymond. Dinner served in the basement.

Afternoon Session Devotionals—W. A. Youngman. Discussion, "The Wesley Adult Bible Class—How Organized and Maintained"—Mrs. Lucy Madden, C. F. Ward.

Discussion, "How I Manage the Primary Department"—Miss Linda Paul. Discussion, "The Sunday School's Opportunity as a Soul Winning Institution"—Rev. A. F. Stem.

Discussion, "How Can We Make the Social Benefit the Devotional"—Miss Maude Jones, Phil McClintock. Discussion, "How to Conduct a Junior League"—Miss Cora Siefert.

Discussion, "The Financial Responsibility of the League"—Eugene Griest. Recess.

Song Service. Evening sermon—Rev. J. J. Kenney. You and your driving horse will like our shoeing. Smith, 407 North Birch.

Changed His Mind

Green was paying his first visit to a race-course. He had heard tales of welters and ticket-snatchers and lurid stories concerning the perfidious henchmen of bookmakers, but still such things did not prevent him having a bet on a big race. He backed an outsider, and it won. With a scraggy smile on his face he went up to draw his winnings.

"Well, what d'ye want?" asked the bookmaker, sticking out a mottled underjaw, while the square-faced clerk scowled ferociously.

"Er—nothing," stammered Green.

"I've just brought your visiting-card back to you."

The general tendency is upward for all heavy goods in our lines and we have provided for the immediate future by placing our orders farther ahead than usual, by and by we will be compelled to pay the higher prices if our "guess" is correct.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The first car of seeded raisins arrived yesterday, and that product, with California's other great dried fruit, the prune, is a strong feature at the present time. The shipment came from the Fresno district where the greater part of the immense crop of the state is produced. Preliminary estimates indicate that the raisin output this year will be short, but as it has often proved very difficult to dispose of the entire production, this may turn out to be a blessing. Export raisins from this state are shipped principally to Canada and the islands of the Pacific ocean. Quite a portion of the output also goes to Europe. The value of the crop is in excess of $4,500,000. The seeded raisins on the local market are selling at 6 to 7 cents a pound. Cluster raisins are not expected for a week or so.

Receipts of potatoes were heavier than for several days—6699 sacks. Thirty-six sacks of beans, 298 sacks of sweet potatoes, and 5300 boxes of apples also came in. No cheese came in and receipts of butter and eggs were 41,587 pounds and ninety-six cases respectively. There were no changes in the staple market. Some longhorn cheese was, however, offered at 19 cents.

Lemons are quite scarce and in many instances are bringing from $4 to $5 a box for fancy, and $2.50 to $3.50 for loose. Tomatoes are far more in evidence than they have been for several weeks.

ARE EMPLOYED AS ARCHITECTS

School Board Takes Final Vote

Awarding Contract to Withey & Davis

Strip Along the East Edge of the Poly Site Addition is Sold For $1200

Last night after a conference with Architects Withey & Davis of Los Angeles, the Santa Ana board of education voted to employ that firm as architects for the polytechnic high school. The plans submitted by Withey & Davis in competition with other architects were selected as the best submitted, and there remained but one thing to be determined before the final vote to elect the firm architects for the building. That thing was as to their reliability.

Yesterday City Superintendent

Cranston was in Los Angeles and Pasadena and made diligent inquiry concerning Withey & Davis, and everything that he heard about them was favorable. Although they are young men, they show marked ability and have had considerable experience. All the Los Angeles architects who were interviewed concerning them spoke highly of them.

The two architects met with the school board last night, and talked over in further detail some of the things shown in the plans. Minor changes are to be made. The architects asked that the Santa Ana school people study the plans carefully and as quickly as possible decide what changes are deemed advisable. The architects stated that they thought it would take eight weeks for them to complete their plans so that they would be ready to submit to contractors for bids upon the work.

To Sell a Strip

The school board accepted an offer of $1200 from M. R. Heninger for a strip 350 by 97 feet along the east edge of the seven acres bought last week from Miss Palmer. This strip is east of the proposed extension of a street along the east edge of the polytechnic high school grounds, and would thus be cut off from the main tract. Heninger owns land adjoining, and made an offer of $1200 for the strip.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

CALL ELECTION FOR NOV. 4TH.

Placentia Residents Agree to Settle Road Question Among Themselves

The Board of Supervisors today is taking the final steps for calling the good roads bonds election for Nov. 4. The resolution calling the election and the proclamation are based on the report and map of the County Highway Commissioners, which have been finally accepted, and the amount of bonds to be submitted is $1,270,000. District Attorney West, County Clerk Williams and the Board of Supervisors are using the utmost care in the procedure. They do not intend to allow any error to get into the record to invalidate the issue. This morning the big highway map was followed by the supervisors while District Attorney West read the descriptions from the resolution while County Clerk Williams compared with the report.

All Are Satisfied

This morning there were fifteen or twenty residents of Placentia at the courthouse to interview the Board of Supervisors and the County Highway Commission. The proposal made a few days ago to have the county good roads map changed so that a section of road running through the town of Placentia be improved instead of improving Placentia avenue as proposed, was the reason for the visit of the ranchers. Some opposed leaving Placentia avenue out. There were conferences with the supervisors and the commissioners, with the result that the Placentia people agreed to make no request for changes in the map. It will stand with the improvement on Placentia avenue. It was agreed among them that every effort would be made at home to improve the street running through Placentia, and thus the section will get both streets improved, which seemed to be the wisest action possible to be taken. At any rate, everybody went away satisfied.

Given Five Days

Today Deputy County Surveyor Hillyard filed an affidavit stating that R. L. Hogue, who contracted to build the west Fifth street bridge for $18,350, had failed to commence work. The board of supervisors then passed a resolution directed to Hogue notifying him that unless he commenced work within five days the county would finish the contract. The surety company that is on Hogue's bond will probably get some contractor to take the job.

Report Accepted

The report of A. L. Hitchcock of Orange as county expert was read and accepted by the supervisors today. Hitchcock has done careful, accurate work, and his report showed that he had made a complete examination of all the work of the various county officers for the first six months of this year, which is no small job.

Mrs. Ellen N. Chapin Denies
That She is Insane—Employs an Attorney

Mrs. Ellen N. Chapin vigorously denies that she is insane, and through her attorney, Clyde Bishop, she has demanded that the question of her sanity be left to a jury.

The woman is 63 years old, the widow of an old soldier. The arrest was made following the conclusions of friends that she was not of sound mind. The woman had a mania for stealing, and the complaint under which she was arrested charges that she steals everything she can get hold of and that she acts in a strange and incoherent manner.

The case was set for 10 o'clock this morning. At that time Bishop appeared, and stated that he had just been employed to defend Mrs. Chapin, and on his request the case was continued until this afternoon.

It was only when the federals opened fire at short range on the rebels that their identity was learned. Orozco succeeded in withdrawing from the town and is now moving down the Conchos river to the Rio Grande.

PREPARE TO PICK WALNUTS

Valla Says Orange County's Output Will be About the Same as Last Year

Walnut growers are beginning to make preparations for handling the season's harvest. Nuts have just begun to drop in spots, and ten days from now the picking will begin.

The indications are that Orange county's walnut output will be up to last year's. In some places the crop is short, but there is enough new acreage coming into bearing to make up the deficit. That is the estimate of L. B. Valla, commercial agent of the Southern Pacific, who keeps in close touch with the crops of this county.

Some sales of lima beans are being made at the good price of five cents per pound.

Colonel Roosevelt, who asserts he did not know of the contributions, will probably follow Archbold on the stand, then George B. Cortelyou and William Loeb, Jr., former secretaries of Roosevelt, will testify.
